The Russell 2000 Index ended its winning streak as stocks experienced unusual volatility, which was a direct result of the Federal Reserve cutting interest rates by 25 basis points on Wednesday. Although the news was anticipated, stocks were still volatile for multiple days. The volatility index had its ups and downs, but ended up spiking higher on Friday as major indexes gave back the majority of their weekly gains.

Bowser stocks (up 1.6% for the week) continued to climb despite small caps underperforming significantly. Trxade Group (TRXD) has already hit the 100% gain milestone as the stock ticked up to $1.50 per share on Thursday. RADA Electronic Industries Ltd. (RADA) also continued its winning streak and hit a new 52-week high relative volume.

Company Headlines

- Monday: No significant news.

Bowser Notes

RADA Electronic Industries (RADA) shares hit a new 52-week high on high relative volume once again. The stock outperformed following the drone strikes in Saudi Arabia on the Aramco oil facility. This is an unusual catalyst but shows the growing demand for its radar systems given the tensions in the Middle East.

Trxade Group (TRXD) gained 21% on the week and hit the 100% gain milestone since our recommendation just last month. The stock has been on fire since its earnings report two months ago, which showed strong top line growth. Keep in mind that The Bowser Report is a long-term approach, although some of these stocks may have strong short-term returns. Regardless, congratulations on another winner!
