Weekly Snapshot

NASDAQ ↑ 4.6%	S&P 500 ↑ 4.0%	RUS 2000 ↑ 3.9%	DJIA ↑ 3.3%
-------------------------	------------------------------	---------------------------	-----------------------

Stocks rallied despite an increasing number of COVID-19 cases in various U.S. hotspots. Since the data was not as concerning as that of the prior week, major indices recovered the drop. Technology stocks continued to carry the Nasdaq higher, with big cloud names like Amazon (AMZN) and Microsoft (MSFT) hitting new all-time highs.

Bowser stocks (up 3.8% for the week) erased last week's losses and bounced back with stocks as a whole. Broadway Financial Corp. (BYFC) made yet another run up without news, and CPS Technologies (CPSH) hit a new 52-week high. While it was a fairly quiet week, the majority of the headlines were positive. Both major indices and recommendations had very low volume since the markets were closed on Friday in observance of the holiday.

Company Headlines

- Monday: Galaxy Gaming (GLXZ) reported a 16% decrease in 1QFY20 revenue to $4.5 million from $5.3 million in the same period last year. SeaChange International (SEAC) was added to the Russell 3000 Index. U.S. Auto Parts Network (PRTS) was added to the Russell 2000 Index.
- Tuesday: Retractable Technologies (RVP) declared dividends to holders of its preferred stock. The dividend amount is $0.125 per share for Series I Class B shareholders and $0.25 per share for Series II Class B shareholders.
- Wednesday: HC2 Holdings (HCHC) continues to review strategic alternatives for Continental Insurance and DBM Global Inc., which may or may not include a potential sale among other options.
- Thursday: Better Online Solutions Ltd. (BOSC) received $740,000 in orders for electronic components for delivery this year through its Supply Chain Division.
- Friday: Markets closed due to the holiday.

Bowser Notes

Happy Fourth of July everyone! The holiday gave us the day off on Friday and lower volume throughout the trading week. Overall, the majority of the headlines throughout the short week were positive. Better Online Solutions Ltd. (BOSC) announced more order for its Supply Chain Division. These orders in combination with the orders announced last week total $1.04 million.

More Bowser stocks were added to Russell indices following the rebalancing. SeaChange International (SEAC) was added to the Russell 3000 Index and U.S. Auto Parts Network (PRTS) was added to the Russell 2000 Index. The main benefit of these indices is that they can potentially attract more liquidity and institutional investors to the stocks.
